What's Happening This Week

This week, on Tuesday, we will be having school pictures. If you plan to have your child wear nice clothes for pictures, please send them to school in these clothes. If you'd like them to change out of their nice clothes, you may send a change of clothes for them.

On Wednesday, we will be going to Moelker Orchard with the other kindergarten class. If you are coming with us, please arrive at 11:25 with a sack lunch for yourself. We will NOT be able to get hot lunch on this day as we will be leaving school before lunch. Remember to dress for the weather, boots are recommended if it has recently rained!

This week is our first full, 5 day week of school. I can see it on everyone's faces that they are feeling tired as they adjust to the school schedule. Thank you for being patient with us as our minds and our bodies adjust!

Note from the Teacher: Last week we talked a lot about kindness. My prayer for my students is that they always remember to be kind to others with their words and their actions, so that Christ's love will radiate from them!
